

EDUCATION:

a. Psychology

- Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology: McGill University, Montreal, Canada. Dissertation topic: "Family Influences in the Vocational Development of Immigrant and Non-immigrant College Candidates", (1994).
- M.A. in Counseling Education—Fulbright Scholar (1984-1986): University of California, Santa Barbara, CA, (1986).

b. Spirituality/Theology

- Th.M. in Christian Spirituality: Jesuit School of Theology, Berkeley, CA. Thesis topic: "Using a Jungian Clinical Approach in Spiritual Direction with Women", (2012).
- M.Div. in Theology and Religion: Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, CA, (2011).

c. Philosophy

- B.A. Philosophy, Psychology and Classics—"Papadakis" Scholar for Academic Excellence (1980-1984): School of Philosophy, University of Athens, Greece, (1984).

LICENSURES AND CERTIFICATIONS:

- Licensed Clinical Psychologist, California Board of Psychologists: PSY 24462, (2011-Present).
- Ordained Minister in the United Church of Christ, (UCC Congregational Church, Medford, Oregon, April 08, 2013).
- Ecclesiastical Endorsement by the United Church of Christ for the ministry of Clinical Pastoral Counseling and Spiritually Integrated Psychotherapy.
- Fellow in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (2011)
- Former licenses: Oregon Board of Psychologists (2009-2012); Texas State Board of Licensed Professional Counselors: (1996-2001); Order of Psychologists of Quebec: (1992-2010); Order of Guidance Counselors of Quebec (1988-1992).

CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY TRAINING:

Trainee in Jungian Analysis: Jung Society of Austin, Texas—01-1997/12-2000.

Studied Jungian psychology, attended study groups and dream analysis groups with teaching Jungian analyst. Underwent Jungian analysis. Teaching analyst: Charles Dominey, LPC, and Graduate of C.J. Jung Institute of Zurich.

Doctoral Intern, Behavior Therapy Unit, Douglas Mental Health University Institute, 6875 Boulevard Lasalle, Montréal, QC, H4H 2T1—09/1989-06/1991 (2,000 hours).

Completed Clinical Doctoral Internship in Applied Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy with adult outpatients. Conducted assessment interviews, administered, scored and interpreted MMPI, SCL-90, Strong-Campbell, developed treatment programs for individuals, couples and groups presenting a variety of cognitive and emotional disorders, including mood and anxiety disorders, eating disorders, obsessive-compulsive disorders, social phobias, sexual dysfunctions and thought disorders following psychotic episodes. Supervisors: Ronald Harris, PhD., Louise Aznavour, PhD.

Trainee in Rogerian Therapy, Chicago Counseling and Psychotherapy Center, Hyde Park, Chicago—09/1986-06/1987. (Current location: The New Center, 3166 N Lincoln Ave Suite 325, Chicago, IL, 60657).

Attended practicum in Client-Centered Theory and Practice, founded by Dr. Carl Rogers. Practiced Rogerian therapy with cases referred or assigned by practicum instructors. Supervisor: Barbara Temaner-Brodley, PhD.

Trainee in Pre-Therapy, Prarie State College, 202 South Halsted Street, Chicago Heights, IL 60411—09-1986-12/1987.

Attended training in Pre-Therapy, an experiential approach based on Carl Rogers' principles, used to establish contact with chronically institutionalized, contact-impaired patients with schizophrenia, active psychosis, and severe intellectual disabilities. Completed theoretical and practical modules, attended weekly meetings, made presentations in regional conferences, and received supervision. Teaching therapist, supervisor and founder of Pre-Therapy: Garry Prouty, PhD.

Senior Counselor in Continuing Education, Interventions, North Side Clinic, 2723 N Clark Street, Chicago, IL, 60614—01/1987-12/1987.

Completed training in Systems Family Therapy. Participated in numerous training programs and conferences sponsored by the Illinois Alcoholism and Drug Dependence Association (IADDA) regarding addiction prevention, treatment and recovery.

Trainee/Grant Recipient, Center for Studies of the Person, 1150 Silverado St. Suite #217, La Jolla, CA. 92037—July 1986.

Attended 2-week international conference led by Dr. Carl Rogers, founder of Person-Centered Therapy, in Szeged, Hungary. Received experiential training in Rogerian therapy. Participated in interactive demonstration of Rogerian therapy with supervising therapist Dr. Barbara Temaner-Brodley.

Trainee in Gestalt Theory and Practice: Counseling Program, Department of Education, University of California, Santa Barbara—09/1985-/6/1986.

Attended advanced coursework and experiential training in Gestalt Theory and Practice. Professor: George Brown, EdD.